Pressing into Promise - Joshua

Joshua 1:6-8

Gareth McCormick

Revelation of the nature and character of God is the source of our courage. God's call requires courage on our part, but on every occasion He invites us into a deeper revelation of himself to meet that need.

Group Questions

1. "Every promise of God will be opposed" – What promises are you living with right now? Are you aware of the opposition that you are facing concerning these promises? Are you aware of the enemy's voice saying, "Did God really say...?" Pray / invite your group to pray with you about these things, asking for courage to press in and take possession of the promises of God.
2. Thinking of our CCBS family – God has called us to grow and become a church that breaks the mould of what is expected for a church in a small town – To inherit this promise will require change, and change always requires courage! Where will courage be required specifically? Pray for corporate courage to press in against the opposition that we will face.
