

Presence and Promise

Pressing into Promise - Joshua

Joshua 3

Peter Vincent

Just as the Israelites carried and followed the presence of God to enter the promised land, so we press into God's promises the same way.

Group Questions

1. Reviewing the message

What do you think God was saying and doing in you or the church through this message?

2. Growing your relationship with God.

On an average day, which mode of communication best describes your relationship with God? - email, text, phonecall, facetime?

How do you want to develop your relationship with God and how might you plan to do this?

NB If you're not already part of a Mats Group (triplet) why not get some mats from the office and form a group to meet once a month to encourage each other in your relationship with God.

3. Bringing God's presence and power wherever we go

Share some stories of when you've had a chance to pray for someone else and see God do something.

Pray together now and ask God for one opportunity each before the group meet again.
